Past simple

Overview

We often use the past simple to talk about an event or action which happened at a specified time in the past:

I talked to John this morning.
He arrived yesterday.
The phone rang while he was in the shower.
He left 10 minutes ago.

Normally there is a word or expression that indicates when the action happened:

this morning, yesterday, 10 minutes ago, when ... , last week, last year

Sometimes we use the past simple without an expression of time:

Wher

Wher

What film did she win an Oscar for?
